Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-24, drawn to a method of determining a patient cardiac condition and optionally providing treatment by using a CPAP apparatus for treating sleep disordered breathing.

Group II, claim(s) 25-48, drawn to a CPAP apparatus.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The 1st claimed invention is drawn to a method of determining a patient cardiac condition and optionally providing treatment by using a CPAP apparatus for treating sleep disordered breathing, which is anticipated by prior art references. As found in the International Search Report, the Invention of the Group I was found to have no special technical feature that defined the contribution over the prior art of US6029665 (Berthon-Jones, as in IDS). Berthon-Jones et al. teach a method of determining a patient cardiac condition and optionally providing treatment by using a CPAP apparatus for treating sleep disordered breathing, which meets the limitation of the claim 1 (see col.2, lines 1-

Art Unit: 1649

39; col.4, line 21-col.6, line 37, in particular). Therefore, claim 1 is anticipated by US6029665 (Berthon-Jones). Since the 1st claimed invention has no special technical feature, it cannot share a special technical feature with the other claimed inventions. Thus, Applicant's inventions do not contribute a special technical feature when view over the prior art, they do not have a single inventive concept and so lack unity of invention.

In addition Group I is directed to a technical feature of determining a patient cardiac condition and optionally providing treatment by using a CPAP apparatus for treating sleep disordered breathing. Group II is directed to a technical feature of a CPAP apparatus. Therefore, the above Inventions do not share a common special technical feature as they comprise different steps and utilize different products. For example, a method for treating patients does not have a same corresponding technical feature as in an apparatus because the patients are not required by the apparatus. Accordingly, Groups I-II are not so linked by the same or a corresponding special technical feature within meaning of PCT Rule 13.1 so as to form a single general inventive concept.

3. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
